

IASP 2021
VIRTUAL WORLD
CONGRESS ON PAIN
9-11 June • 16-18 June 2021

Schedule at a Glance

9 JUNE 2021
10:00 – 11:00 EDT	PLENARY LECTURES President's Welcome Claudia Sommer, MD, University of Würzburg, Germany Past President's Remarks Lars Arendt-Nielsen, Dr. Med., PhD, School of Medicine, Aalborg University, Denmark, Denmark Scientific Program Committee Chair Remarks Andrew Rice, MB BS, MD, FRCP, FRCA, FFPMRCA, Imperial College London, United Kingdom Pain Prevention and Management Must Begin in Childhood: The Key Role of Psychological Interventions Tonya Palermo, PhD, University of Washington School of Medicine, United States
11:00 – 12:15 EDT	CONCURRENT TOPICAL WORKSHOPS Inferring Pain Intensity from Brain Signals: The Promise and the Challenges Robert Coghill, PhD, Cincinnati Children's Hospital, United States Rebecca Slater, PhD, University of Oxford, United Kingdom Choong-Wan Woo, PhD, Sungkyunkwan University, Republic of Korea Neuropathic Pain Mind-Changers – Breaking News from Basic and Clinical Science Patrik Ernfors, PhD, Karolinska Institute, Sweden Pall Karlsson, PhD, Aarhus University, Denmark Nurcan Üçeyler, Prof. Dr. (MD; MHBA), University Hospital of Würzburg, Germany The Dynamic Role of the Amygdala in Pain Perception and Learning Lauren Atlas, PhD, NIH, United States Gregory Corder, PhD, University of Pennsylvania, United States Fusao Kato, PhD, The Jikei University School of Medicine, Japan Engaging the Patient Voice in Pain Research: Partnering with Patients to Achieve Research Relevance and Impact Kathryn Birnie, PhD, University of Calgary, Canada Jo Josh, BA, BEd, British HIV Association, United Kingdom Justina Marianayagam, BHSc, Lakehead University, Canada Whitney Scott, PhD, King's College London, United Kingdom
12:15 – 13:30 EDT	VIRTUAL EXHIBITS AND POSTER VIEWING

13:30-14:45 EDT	CONCURRENT TOPICAL WORKSHOPS
	An Optimist's View of Meta-Analysis and Systematic Review Methodology in Pain Research: Seeing the Opportunity in Every Difficulty Robert Edwards, PhD, Brigham & Women's Hospital, United States Nadia Soliman, MRes, Imperial College London, United Kingdom Lene Vase, Msc, PhD, DMSc, Aarhus University, Denmark
	Pain in a Dish: Using In Vitro Models to Investigate Pain Genetics, Ion Channel Trafficking and Disease Pathophysiology Alex Clark, PhD, University of Oxford, United Kingdom Sulayman Dib-Hajj, PhD, Yale School of Medicine, United States Angelika Lampert, MD, University Hospital RWTH Aachen, Germany
	Towards Understanding and Altering Disparities in Pain Care Adam Hirsh, PhD, Indiana University – Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI), United States Edmund Keogh, PhD, University of Bath, United Kingdom Tine Vervoort, PhD, Ghent University, Belgium
14:45 – 15:15 EDT	PATIENT STRATIFICATION METHODS FOR NEUROPATHIC PAIN RESEARCH Ralf Baron, Prof Dr med, Universitaetsklinikum Schleswig-Holstein, Germany, Germany Donna Kennedy, PhD, Imperial College London, United Kingdom Dimitri Van Ryckeghem, PhD, Maastricht University, Netherlands
	PLENARY LECTURE
15:15 – 16:00 EDT	John D. Loeser Award Lecture: The Greatest Teacher, Failure Is: Falsely Positive, Falsely Negative, and Falsely Interpreted Clinical Trials of Pain Treatments Robert Dworkin, PhD, John D. Loeser Award Lecture, University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry, United States
	VIRTUAL EXHIBITS AND POSTER VIEWING

10 JUNE 2021
10:00 – 11:00 EDT	PLENARY LECTURES
	Pathogenesis of Pain in Osteoarthritis Tonia Vincent, PhD, The Kennedy Institute of Rheumatology, United Kingdom Pathological Mechanisms of Diabetic Neuropathy and Neuropathic Pain Nigel Calcutt, PhD, University of California San Diego, United States

11:00 – 12:15 EDT	CONCURRENT TOPICAL WORKSHOPS The Jumble of Sciatica, Radicular Pain and Radiculopathy - Are they Neuropathic Pain? Ralf Baron, Dr med, Universitaetsklinikum Schleswig-Holstein, Germany Annina Schmid, PhD, Oxford University, United Kingdom Brigitte Tampin, Grad.Dip.Manip.Ther, MSc, PhD, Sir Charles Gairdner Hospital, Australia Judicious Use of Opioids in Chronic Pain and Palliative Care Sushma Bhatnagar, MD, All India Institute of Medical Sciences, India Jane C. Ballantyne, MD, FRCA, University of Washington, United States Lukas Radbruch, MD, Director of the Department of Palliative Medicine, University Hospital Bonn / Germany, Germany Has the Time Come for Non-Invasive Cortical Stimulation for Pain? New data from Large, Robust, Randomized Controlled Trials and How They Can Be Useful in Clinical Practice. Didier Bouhassira, MD, PhD, INSERM, Hôpital Ambroise Paré, France Daniel Ciampi de Andrade, MD, PhD, Hospital das Clínicas, LIM 62, Brazil Koichi Hosomi, MD, PhD, Osaka University, Japan Youichi Saitoh, MD, PhD, Osaka University Graduate School of Medicine, Japan Autophagy: A New Puzzle Piece In Chronic Pain Mechanisms Maria Maiaru, PhD, University of Reading, United Kingdom Sara Marinelli, PhD, Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche – CNR- Institute of Biochemistry and Cell Biology (IBBC), Italy David Rubinsztein, MB ChB, PhD, Cambridge Institute for Medical Research, United Kingdom
12:15 – 13:30 EDT	SIG SYMPOSIUM Myofascial Pain in Focus (Musculoskeletal Pain SIG) Heather Tick, MD, University of Washington, United States Helene Langevin, MD, National Center for Complementary and Integrative Health (NCCIH), United States Carla Stecco, MD, University of Padova, Italy Andrew Briggs, BSc(PT)Hons, PhD, FACP, Curtin University, Australia
13:30-14:45 EDT	CONCURRENT TOPICAL WORKSHOPS Molecular Approaches for the Study of Painful Diabetic Neuropathy David Bennett, MB PhD, Oxford, United Kingdom Rohini Kuner, PhD, Heidelberg University, Germany Daniela Menichella, MD, PhD, Northwestern University, United States Translational Spotlight on the Spinal Cord in Chronic Pain: Mechanisms, Modulation, Clinical Trials, and Human Neuroimaging Yves De Koninck, PhD, Université Laval, CERVO Brain Research Centre, Canada

	Pascal Fossat, PhD, University of Bordeaux, France Katherine Martucci, PhD, Duke University, United States Marieke Niesters, MD, PhD, Leiden University Medical Center, Netherlands Pain in Arthritis: Role of Inflammation, Bone Destruction, Neuronal Changes, and Impact of Neurodegenerative Disease Marzia Malcangio, PhD, Institute of Psychiatry Psychology and Neuroscience, King's College London, United Kingdom Hans-Georg Schaible, MD, Friedrich Schiller University, Germany Camilla Svensson, PhD, Karolinska Institutet, Sweden Heterotopic pain in the Trigeminal System: Is it a Misunderstanding of the Brain? Malin Ernberg, DDS, PhD, Karolinska Institutet, Sweden Koichi Iwata, DDS, PhD., Nihon University School of Dentistry, Japan Donald Nixdorf, DDS, School of Dentistry, University of Minnesota, United States
14:45 – 15:15 EDT	PLENARY LECTURE
	Neural Circuits of Itch and Pain Sarah Ross, PhD, University of Pittsburgh, United States
15:15 – 16:00 EDT	VIRTUAL EXHIBITS AND POSTER VIEWING

11 JUNE 2021
01:00 – 02:00 EDT	PLENARY LECTURES Microglia and Intractable Chronic Pain: Animal Research to Human Study Kazuhide Inoue, PhD, Kyushu University, Japan Surgery for Chronic Pain Conditions: The Question of Evidence and Getting the Balance Right Ian Harris, MBBS, MMed(Clin Epi), PhD, FRACS, FAHMS, UNSW Sydney, Australia
02:00 – 03:15 EDT	CONCURRENT TOPICAL WORKSHOPS National Pain Strategies: Working Strategically and Collaboratively to Solve the Global Problem of Pain Carol Bennett, BSc MA, PainAustralia, Australia Mary Cardoso, MD, Selayang Hospital, Malaysia Sean Mackey, MD, PhD, Stanford University, United States Nociceptive, Sensory-Motor and Emotional Determinants of Persistent Pain after Cervical Trauma: Treatment Implications Michele Curatolo, MD, PhD, University Of Washington, United States

	Jo Nijs, PhD, PT, MT, Vrije Universiteit Brussel, Belgium Michele Sterling, PhD, PT, MT, The University of Queensland, Australia
03:15 – 04:30 EDT	VIRTUAL EXHIBITS AND POSTER VIEWING
04:30 – 05:45 EDT	CONCURRENT TOPICAL WORKSHOPS Implementation of the Chronic Pain Classification as Part of the 11th Revision of the International Classification of Diseases (ICD-11) in Clinical Settings: Classification Issues and Measures for More Effective Use Beatrice Korwisi, PhD, Philipps-University Marburg, Germany Audun Stubhaug, MD, DMedSci, Oslo University Hospital and University of Oslo, Norway Takahiro Ushida, MD, PhD, Aichi Medical University, Japan Nantthasorn Zinboonyahgoon, MD, DABA-PM, Faculty of Medicine, Siriraj Hospital, Mahidol University, Thailand, Thailand Personalized Mechanistic Pain Medicine Using Quantitative Sensory Testing (QST) Asbjørn Drewes, MD, PhD, DMSc, EDPM, Aalborg University Hospital, Denmark Kristian Kjær Petersen, MSc, PhD, Aalborg University, Denmark Esther Pogatzki-Zahn, MD, PhD, University Hospital Muenster, Germany
05:45 – 06:15 EDT	PLENARY LECTURE
	Spinal Cord Stimulation in Chronic Neuropathic Pain: Mechanisms of Action, New Locations, New Paradigms Bert Joosten, PhD, Maastricht University, Netherlands

16 JUNE 2021
10:00 – 11:00 EDT	PLENARY LECTURES
	William D. Willis, Jr, MD, PhD Memorial Lecture: Evolution as a Mechanistic Discovery Tool to Shut Down Pain Gary Lewin, PhD, William D. Willis, Jr, MD, PhD Memorial Lecture, Lewin Lab, Germany How Do Expectations Influence Treatment Outcome? Ulrike Bingel, MD, PhD, University of Duisburg-Essen, Germany
11:00 – 12:15 EDT	CONCURRENT TOPICAL WORKSHOPS
	Social Mechanisms Underlying the Pain Experience: An Innovative Multidisciplinary, Multi-Species Approach

	Luana Colloca, MD, PhD, MS, University of Maryland, United States Christian Keysers, PhD, Netherlands Institute for Neuroscience, Netherlands Loren Martin, PhD, University of Toronto, Canada Dysregulation of Calcium Signaling in the Periphery and Spinal Cord: Molecular Targets for Current and Emergent Pain Therapies Annette Dolphin, PhD, University College London, United Kingdom Michael Gold, PhD, University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine, United States Michael Hildebrand, PhD, Carleton University, Canada Pain, Motivation, and Reward: What We Know and What We Do Not Know about Opioids and Dopamine Susanne Becker, PhD, University of Zurich, Switzerland Howard Fields, MD PhD, University of California, San Francisco, United States Siri Leknes, PhD, University of Oslo, Norway Incorporation of Pain Intensity and Physical and Emotional Functioning in Primary Outcomes of Pain Studies: A Discussion of Novel Outcomes for Basic and Clinical Research Jennifer Gewandter, PhD, MPH, University of Rochester, United States Wenlong Huang, PhD, MBBS, University of Aberdeen, United Kingdom
12:15 – 13:30 EDT	VIRTUAL EXHIBITS AND POSTER VIEWING
12:15 – 13:30 EDT	INDUSTRY SYMPOSIUM GSK Symposium: Suitability and Efficacy for Analgesics : Two Sides of the Same Coin Paul Christo, MD, Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, United States John Bell, MD, University of Technology Sydney, Australia
13:30-14:45 EDT	CONCURRENT TOPICAL WORKSHOPS
	Phenotyping in Chronic Pain: Psychological, Sensory, and Psychophysiological Profiles Melissa Day, PhD, University of Queensland, Australia Robert Edwards, PhD, Brigham & Women's Hospital, United States Kati Thieme, PhD, Philipps-University Marburg, Germany The Intersection of Trauma and Pain: Translation Across Children, Adults, and Animals Richelle Mychasiuk, PhD, Monash University, Australia Melanie Noel, PhD, RPsych, University of Calgary, Canada Amanda Williams, PhD, CPsychol, University College London, United Kingdom

	The Role of Nociceptors, Thermoreceptors and Itch Afferents in Normal Perception and in Neuropathic Pains: Lessons from Microneurography Mario Campero, MD, Universidad de Chile, Chile Martin Schmelz, MD, PhD, University Heidelberg, Medical Faculty Mannheim, Germany Jordi Serra, MD, Neurology, Spain Peripheral Nerve Society Session: Using RNS Sequencing on Human Peripheral Nerves to Understand Mechanisms Driving Painful Neuropathies (presented at PNS on 13 June) Ted Price, PhD, University of Texas at Dallas, United States
	Neuropathic Pain in the Community: Prevalence, Impact, and Risk Factors Blair Smith, MD, University of Dundee, United Kingdom

17 JUNE 2021
10:00 – 11:00 EDT	PLENARY LECTURES
	Ulf Lindblom Young Investigator Award for Clinical Science Siobhan Schabrun, PhD, Ulf Lindblom Young Investigator Award for Clinical Science, Neuroscience Research Australia, Australia Patrick D. Wall Young Investigator Award for Basic Science Thiago Cunha, PhD, Patrick D. Wall Young Investigator Award for Basic Science, University of Sao Paulo, Ribeirao Preto Medical School, Brazil Ronald Dubner Research Prize Jan Vollert, PhD, Ronald Dubner Research Prize, Imperial College London, United Kingdom
11:00 – 12:15 EDT	CONCURRENT TOPICAL WORKSHOPS
	Peripheral and Central Drivers of Sexually Dimorphic Neuronal Pain Plasticity Jeffrey Mogil, PhD, F.R.S.C., McGill University, Canada Theodore Price, PhD, School of Behavioral and Brain Sciences, United States Carole Torsney, PhD, University of Edinburgh, United Kingdom

	Autoantibodies and Pain John Dawes, PhD, University Of Oxford, United Kingdom Andreas Goebel, MD, PhD, University of Liverpool, United Kingdom Camilla Svensson, PhD, Karolinska Institutet, Sweden Digital Therapeutics for Pain Management: From Aspiration to Delivery Gerhard Andersson, PhD, Linköping University, Sweden Christopher Eccleston, PhD, The University Of Bath, United Kingdom Deirdre Logan, PhD, Boston Children's Hospital, United States Peripheral Nerve Society Session: Human iPSC-derived Sensory Neurons to Study Painful Peripheral Neuropathy (presented at PNS on 13 June) Angelika Lampert, MD, Institute of Physiology (Neurophysiology) at the RWTH Aachen University, Germany
12:15 – 13:30 EDT	VIRTUAL EXHIBITS AND POSTER VIEWING
12:15 – 13:30 EDT	SIG SYMPOSIUM Understanding the clinical presentation of Complex Regional Pain Syndrome in Countries with Less Available Information (CRPS SIG) Andreas Goebel, MD, PhD, University of Liverpool, United Kingdom Muhammad Kashif, Dr. med, Royal Derby Hospital, United Kingdom Muhammad Aasam Masoom Maan, PhD, Faisalabad Medical University, Pakistan Daniel Ciampi de Andrade, MD, PhD, Pain Center, Brazil Michelle Casey, MD, University of Cape Town, South Africa Jee Youn Moon, PhD, Seoul National University Pain Management Center, South Korea
13:30-14:45 EDT	CONCURRENT TOPICAL WORKSHOPS Novel Insight in Pain-Related Cortical Neuroplasticity – Potential Targets for Pain Management? Thomas Graven-Nielsen, DMSc, PhD, The Faculty of Medicine, Aalborg University, Denmark Siobhan Schabrun, PhD, Ulf Lindblom Young Investigator Award for Clinical Science, Neuroscience Research Australia, Australia David Seminowicz, PhD, University of Maryland School of Dentistry, United States Translational Studies of Musculoskeletal Pain David Andersson, PhD, King's College London, United Kingdom Michael Jankowski, MS, PhD, Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center, United States Ewan Smith, MPharmacol, PhD, University of Cambridge, United Kingdom Endoplasmic Reticulum and Mitochondrial Dysfunction in Pain States Juan Cubillos-Ruiz, PhD, Weill Cornell Medicine – Cornell University, United States E. Alfonso Romero-Sandoval, MD, PhD, Wake Forest University School of Medicine, United States

	Manuela Schmidt, PhD, University of Vienna, Austria Trigeminal Neuropathy: Trouble, Trauma, Tension and Treatment? Lene Baad-Hansen, DDS, PhD, Dr. Odont., Aarhus University, Scandinavian Center for Orofacial Neurosciences (SCON), Denmark Tara Renton, PhD, MDSc, BDS, FDS, RCS, FRACDS (OMS), FHEA, King's College, United Kingdom Frédéric Van der Cruyssen, MD, DDS, University Hospitals Leuven, Belgium
14:45 – 15:15 EDT	PLENARY LECTURE Ronald Melzack Award Lecture: Putting the Cognitive into Cognitive Behavioral Therapy Beverly Thorn, ABPP, PhD, Ronald Melzack Award Lecture, University of Alabama, United States

18 JUNE 2021
01:00 – 02:00 EDT	PLENARY LECTURES Establishing Multidisciplinary Pain Management and Training in the Developing World: The Southeast Asian Experience Pongparadee Chaudakshetrin, MD, FRCAT, FFPMANZCA (Hon.), Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital, Mahidol University, Thailand Low Back Pain: A Call to Action to Reduce Low Value Medical Care for Low Back Pain Rachelle Buchbinder, AO, MBBS (Hons), MSc, PhD, FRACP, FAHMS, Monash University and Cabrini Institute, Australia
02:00 – 03:15 EDT	CONCURRENT TOPICAL WORKSHOPS Answers to the Questions: Ethical and Practical Considerations in Placebo Control of Surgical and Invasive Analgesic Interventions Sam Eldabe, MB, ChB FRCA FFMPRCA, The James Cook University Hospital, United Kingdom Ian Harris, MBBS, MMed(Clin Epi), PhD, FRACS, FAHMS, UNSW Sydney, Australia Neil O'Connell, PhD, Brunel University London, United Kingdom Karolina Wartolowska, PhD, MD, University of Oxford, United Kingdom The Role of Narrative Medicine in Pain Management, Research, and Treatment Practices

	Joletta Belton, MSc, IASP, United States Charles Paccione, M.S., M.A., PhD Fellow, Oslo University Hospital, Norway Lissanthea Taylor, B.App Sci (PT), Parkway Health, Shanghai, China (People's Republic) Models of Care for Chronic Persistent Pain - Think Globally? Mary Cardoso, Anaesthesiology, MD – Visiting Consultant Pain Specialist, Selayang Hospital, Malaysia Fiona Blyth, Faculty of Medicine and Health, PhD, MBBS (Hons), FAFPHM, University of Sydney, Australia Jimmy Barus, MD, Ph.D - School of Medicine and Health Science, Universitas Katolik Indonesia Atma Jaya, Indonesia Saurab Sharma, Neuroscience Research Australia, Australia Andrew Briggs, Health Policy and Systems Research, Curtin University, Australia Peripheral Nerve Society Session: Neuropathic Pain Development in the Aged (presented at PNS on 13 June) Michael Burton, PhD, Neuroscience Program at The University of Texas at Dallas, United States
03:15 – 04:30 EDT	VIRTUAL EXHIBITS AND POSTER VIEWING
04:30 – 05:45 EDT	CONCURRENT TOPICAL WORKSHOPS
	Imaging of the Brain in Chronic Pain: How to use Advanced Analysis Methods to Predict Treatment Response Hans-Christoph Aster, MD, University of Würzburg, Germany Ishtiaq Mawla, MS, University of Michigan, United States Claudia Sommer, MD, University of Wuerzburg, Germany Zhiguo Zhang, PhD, Shenzhen University, China (People's Republic) “But Moving Makes Me Hurt More” – Exploring the Scientific Underpinnings of Movement-Evoked Pain and its Clinical Management Staja Booker, PhD, RN, The University of Florida, United States Megan McPhee, PhD, MSc Med, BPhy (Hons), Aalborg University, Denmark Tasha Stanton, BScPT, MScRS, PhD, The University of South Australia, Australia Michael Sullivan, PhD, McGill University, Canada Peripheral Nerve Society Session: Chemotherapy-Induced Peripheral Neuropathy (CIPN): Characteristics, Patterns and Outcomes Across the Lifespan (presented at PNS on 13 June) Ellen Lavoie Smith, PhD, MSN, RN, AOCN[®], FAAN, University of Michigan (UM) School of Nursing, United States

	John J. Bonica Award Lecture: Burning Questions and the Search for Soothing Solutions Srinivasa Raja, MD, John J. Bonica Award Lecture, Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, United States Closing Remarks Lars Arendt-Nielsen, Dr. Med., PhD, School of Medicine, Aalborg University, Denmark, Denmark
